“ Mae: Shar and I wish to express our deepest sympathy at the passing of Warren. Though we are in contact with Shar's sister Suzanne quite often, we must not have done so recently. We continue to get the B.C. Enterprise, but it did not arrive until today. We were taken by surprise to see Warren's obituary. Though I have not seen Warren since we moved to Lincoln, I (Rod) will truly miss our conversations with Warren, most often sprinkled with quite a bit of humor. The times I visited your home, I was always amazed at his collections of antiques and especially his brass collection. He was always so willing to give insight into my questions (probably pretty dumb ones at times) regarding most everything. Shar and I always remember having supper (never have quite gotten used to the city referral of "dinner" for the evening meal - just don't seem right) with you Mae and Warren at the restaurant off of Omaha Avenue (Brass Lantern??). So enjoyable. Quite a guy! Warren was a straight shooter with no 'blowing smoke'. As many, I will miss him very much. May God richly bless you with His peace!

“ My condolences, enjoyed working with Warren back in 1965 when he was laying brick for the new parsonage for the Methodist Church in which the Bruning family would occupy for a few years. My task was to scrape and wash away mortar from brick surfaces. Fortunately he was such a great brick layer that not much mortar was adhering where it didn't belong. Scott Moody
