“ To the dear children of Aunt Ann!
My condolences on the death of your dear mother and grandmother. She was such a special and loving and joyful presence over the years, as I remember the many Zach family gatherings. I describe her as a "sweetheart." I can still picture the polka music being played so enthusiastically, led by accordions, and joyfully at our reunions. She is so loved and will be so missed by this nephew. I am proud to call her my favorite aunt!
I received a note from Uncle Bernie in Georgia, the last of the siblings. (Bernie and Jeanne Zach, 8592 Roswell Rd., Atlanta GA 30350) He is requesting me the honor to offer Masses for her intention. Please know that I will be remembering her in my January Masses at St. Henry Parish, here in Gresham, OR.
My sister, Mary, sent a note that she was at Aunt Ann's funeral Mass with my older siblings Steve and Evelyn. I was there in spirit.
Blessings to all the children of dear Uncle Wally and Aunt Ann. You have parents that have passed on a loving and enduring legacy to you and your children. May they both rest in peace, and may they be given priority seating at the banquet table in the heavenly kingdom. Love and mir, your cousin, Fr. Charles Zach (shantaywashtay@hotmail.com)

“ We were saddened to hear that Aunt Annie had passed away. She always brought happiness wherever she went. It was so neat to hear her giggling with her siblings. She reminded us of Eleanor in so many ways. Those two would have so much fun together and now they are having fun in Heaven. She passed away at the same age Eleanor was. Even though there were several years between them, they had a super bond. I remember your parents bringing their delicious bakery to family get-together. You are in our thoughts and prayers. “ I want to send my sincere sympathy to all Aunt Ann's children and families. Aunt Ann will always be remembered for her beautiful smile and laugh. She was the life of the party. I used to love our family reunions where members of the family played an accordion and we danced. It was always a great time, and I miss those times with Aunt Ann and all the other aunts and uncles and their families. Rest in peace dear Aunt Ann. We will miss you.

To Annie's Family, We were saddened to hear that she passed away. She reminded us so much of Eleanor. Those two would laugh and always had fun whenever they got together. Just hearing them laugh made us laugh! I remember Wally and Annie bringing delicious pastries from their bakery to the Thomas parties. She will certainly be missed but we know she is spreading happiness in Heaven as she did on earth. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Dave & Connie Thomas
