Annabell (Kalvelage) Weeder was born to Ben and Ann (Schrad) Kalvelage on September 6, 1925, on a farm near Norfolk. Her parents moved to a farm near Osmond when she was six. She attended St. Mary’s Catholic School. Annabell married Andrew Weeder on January 10, 1945 at St. Mary’s Church. Following Andrew’s service in the United States Navy, they farmed south of Osmond and raised their five children, Carol, Daniel, Roger, Michael and Jacqueline. Together they liked traveling, spending time with their family and being caretakers of St. Mary’s Catholic Cemetery of which they both took great pride. Annabell was an active member of St. Mary’s Guild and Christian Mother’s Society. She enjoyed working in her vegetable garden, playing cards, quilting and baking her “family famous” cinnamon rolls.
