Aric was born on January 19th, 1982 in Jetmore, Kansas to Robert Lynn and Caroline J. Burton. He graduated from high school in 2001.

Aric, mostly known as Arack, lived life on his terms from a very young age. His life was about adventure, imagination, escape and true unfiltered fun. He has travelled and is well known in Colorado, Oregon, Hawaii, and many other places he visited. He loved to draw, art was a safe place for him to express himself without judgement or a filter. He didn't hold back, he gave 100% into everything he did. A conversation would always turn into stories and memories and times that he loved to share. A joke was never far away, he loved to laugh and enjoy the moment. He impacted the world with his wit and sarcasm and even his looks. He taught so many people that you can truly not judge a book by it's cover. So many people thought he looked intimidating, but he would leave early to make sure his rabbit was always okay and had the biggest heart. He is held in many hearts and missed by so many. His legacy is to always live life to the fullest, be yourself and to definitely make an impression, everywhere you go.

He is survived by his mother Caroline J. Burton of Honolulu, Hawaii, brother Christopher Burton and his son Gunner of Loveland, Colorado, sister Gennipher Staroscik of Columbus, Nebraska, half sister LaTessa Goytia of Dodge City, KS, half brother Lane Burton of Dodge City, KS, best friend Ashton Wolfe of Portland, Oregon, nieces Taylor Burton of Aurora, CO, Rylee Burton and Hollee Burton of Loveland, CO, Mazzee Staroscik of Columbus, NE, uncle Mont G.
