“ I remember when we went some place and there was a band playing there and they played Wipe out and boy she did that and kept up with every beat of the song to. I have so many good memories of aunt Bea, I will truly miss her deeply. She always made she had her hair done and her nails and had nice clothes. God got a true angel when he called her home. Please take care of her God, she is a jewel. I love you aunt Bea.
