

Betty A. Brunckhorst

June 30, 1926 - April 5, 2014

OSMOND — Betty A. Brunckhorst, 87, of Osmond died Saturday, April 5, 2014, at Colonial Manor, Randolph. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the United Methodist Church, Osmond, with burial in the Osmond City Cemetery and the Rev. Kevin Burkhardt officiating. Visitation will be 4-8 p.m. Wednesday at Stonacek Memorial Chapel, Osmond. She was born June 30, 1926, at Plainview and was the twelfth of 13 children born to William and Anna (Larson) Armstrong. She graduated from Plainview High School in 1944. She married Henry J. Brunckhorst Nov. 5, 1944, at Plainview. The couple moved to Osmond in 1950. Betty spent her life devoted to her husband and helping him. She also did babysitting and house cleaning. She was active in her church and was involved in many of their activities throughout her life. Betty delighted in her family, friends and other relatives. She was a longtime member of the Osmond Senior Citizens Center and enjoyed her many days spent with them playing cards and attending their social events. Betty lived in her own home until moving to the Countryside Villa Assisted Living Center in June 2008 and in 2013 to Colonial Manor in Randolph. Both places became “home” to her where she made many new friends. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, Osmond, and Order of the Eastern Star. Survivors are three daughters, Barb and husband Paul Reineke of Osmond, Rebecca Brunckhorst of Torrance, Calif., and Diane and husband Kent Gansebom of Osmond; one son, Randall and wife Jane Brunckhorst of Green Valley, Ariz.; nine grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Dec. 11, 1994, and all of her brothers and sisters. Betty was the only remaining living member of her family. Music will be by organist Charlotte Kiichler. Casket bearers will be grandsons Gene Pfanstiel, Paul Krier, Keith Kimball, Joe Knust, Jeremy Reineke, Jason Gansebom, Shawn Gansebom and Pat Gansebom. Honorary casket bearers will be granddaughters and great-grandchildren.
