“ I will miss her smile, her caring ways and her love of crafts. I always felt loved by her. I loved being in her wedding and she was the most beautiful bride. The mixed plant dish is from me. Not sure how it got anonymous.

“ My heart is sore and my family sends sympathy to the rest of the family. Brenda was my cousin and she was one of the kindest women on the planet. She raised a very strong family. It will be hard not keeping up with her family now that she will no longer be posting on FB. Maybe someone else will take her place? I would love that.

“ Brenda was so creative and loved art. She painted a picture for me of a country mailbox with our name on it along with the wreaths she made many of her coworkers for Christmas. We shared a locker area for a long time and worked a lot of overtime together. May peace be yours now and find joy reuniting with your family as you watch over your loved ones still here 🙏🙏🙏

“ Brenda & I lived across the street from each other for awhile. We spent lots of time together. They had a tree by the front steps we used to jump on & climb or swing on a limb. One day I jumped reaching for the limb & missed it. Fell flat on my back, I couldn't breath for awhile. Scared the hell out of both of us. It's been long remembered I guess b/c she had told a friend of mine that she worked with about it. 😊
Rest in Peace my friend! 🙏💜

“ When i was not old enough to get into an R rated movie, Brenda lent me her id. Back then they didn't have pictures on the id. I had light brown hair and green eyes and weight/ height were close enough. Thanks sis for that awesome memory!
