Carolyn was a loving sister, spouse, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and follower of Christ. Carolyn was born on October 4, 1942, to Ewald and Agnes (Knippen) Kehres in Delphos, Ohio. Carolyn went to St. John's Elementary and High School in Delphos and graduated in 1960. Until her marriage, Carolyn was a service representative for the Lima Telephone and Telegraph Company in Lima, Ohio. While staying with her uncle, a priest in Bow Valley, Nebraska, she met the love of her life, Henry Schmit (Hank). The two were married at St. John's Catholic Church in Delphos, Ohio. Carolyn helped Henry manage Osmond Oil Company which they owned. She would later work as a secretary at St. Mary's School and then as a paraprofessional at Osmond Community School. Carolyn and Henry were blessed with two sons, Douglas (Denise) Schmit and Thomas (Dottie) Schmit. As each grandchild came into her life, Carolyn was filled with so much love and joy. Her grandchildren became a big part of her world. Doug and Denise had three sons, David (Raelynn and daughter Kyra) of Genoa, Nebraska, Dominic of Sutton, Nebraska, and Dante of Hartington, Nebraska. Thomas and Dottie have one son, Dylan, of Vermillion, South Dakota, and one daughter, Bailey, of Hastings, Nebraska. She loved to be a part of each of their lives. Growing up in Ohio, Carolyn was a part of a close family. She was preceded in death by her brother Carl (Marcille) Kehres. Her surviving siblings include Vince (Mary Ann) Kehres, Dennis (Diana) Kehres, and Dorothy (Ron) Morris. Carolyn has been an active member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, National Catholic Society of Foresters, Catholic Ladies Guild, Christian Mothers, and Osmond Women's Club. Carolyn was involved in many community activities and shared "Citizen of the Year" for Osmond with her husband, Henry. Carolyn would go out of her way to help anyone that needed it. She was a true, close friend to many. Over the years, Carolyn loved to do crafts. She hand painted her daughters-in-law a nativity set and sewed a quilt for each. She then made a baby blanket for each grandchild. She also enjoyed helping Henry make all the decorations for their Christmas display each year. Carolyn held the things that she loved near and dear to her—her family, Osmond, her ever present faith, and her grandchildren. Her words of wisdom, her worry, and her endless prayers for each of her grandchildren will never be forgotten.

“ So sorry to hear of Carolyn's passing. She and I were classmates, used to run around together, mostly after our high school days. I was in her wedding. I also had been out to visit her a couple of times many years back. We didn't keep track of each other much over the years as we should have. The last few years occasionally kept somewhat on Facebook. May she rest in peace and be free of her pain and discomfort of which she may have endured.
