NORFOLK – Celebration of life service for Charles H. “Chet” Harper Sr., 88, of Norfolk, formerly of Auburn, will be held at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, October 19, 2025 at the Stonacek Funeral Chapel in Norfolk. Marshal Hardy will be officiating the service. Public graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, October 18, 2025 at the Sheridan Cemetery, Auburn, Nebraska. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Brownville Village Theatre in Brownville, NE or the Norfolk Community Theatre in Norfolk. Chet passed away on Monday, October 13, 2025 at the Faith Regional Hospital in Norfolk. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Chet was born on July 16, 1937, in Little Rock, Arkansas to James Burl and Faye Marie (Parkhurst) Harper. He graduated from Superior High School, Nebraska in 1955 and attended Tarkio College in Missouri earning his bachelor’s degree. He then attended the University of Nebraska-Lincoln earning his Masters and PH.D. Chet was a professor and taught at Northeast High School in Lincoln, Nebraska Wesleyan University in Lincoln, Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Michigan, and Peru State College in Peru, Nebraska. He married Judith “Judy” Wilhite on August 11, 1963 at the United Methodist Church in Nebraska City, Nebraska. They were blessed with three children: Tracy Elizabeth, Charles Harold Jr., and James Brian.

Chet enjoyed watching Husker football with his family and friends and attending tailgates in Lincoln for gameday. Chet liked to travel with Judy and other family as well. Mostly though, Chet loved spending time with his family and enjoying his grandkids. After living for many years in Auburn, Chet and Judy moved to Norfolk, Nebraska. He was involved with the Brownville Village Theatre for many years, being the director for 15 years. He was locally involved with the Norfolk Community College Theatre, the Norfolk Arts Council, and was a member of the HOA Mach 1-36 organization, Norfolk. Chet was known as the “grandpa” in his Norfolk neighborhood. Also known as the “hoods” grandpa.

Chet is survived by his children Tracy (Eric) McFall of College Station, Texas, Charles Jr. (Camille) Harper of Norfolk, Brian (Jennifer) Harper of League City, TX; grandchildren Garrett (Lena), Ellie, and Maggie McFall; Hailey (Adam) Hagedorn, Evan, Chloe, and Kendall Harper; Ethan and Carleigh Harper; 2 great-grandchildren Atlas and Malakia; sister Barbara (John) Parks of Clovis, CA. and numerous nieces, nephews, and Rusty (his four-legged constant companion for 16 years), and other relatives and many friends. He was preceded in death by his wife Judy Harper on May 21, 2019, parents James (Faye) Harper, and brother Jerry Harper.

“ I first met Judy and Chet in 1963 when they moved into the same small apartment complex in Wahoo, Nebraska. Judy was working at the public school in Wahoo. I don't remember if Chet was at Wesleyan or at Lincoln Northeast high school. They later moved to Lincoln and were in an apartment near the apartment complex where we lived. I helped Chet move to the house they bought on 70th street in Lincoln. My wife Melinda and I moved to Kansas City, Mo. in 1966 but stayed in touch with Judy and Chet. Visited them in Peru, Ne. a couple of times. When I first met Chet, he was a progressive Democrat, which I still am. He seems to have become a right wing Republican somewhere along the line. When we found each other on Facebook we used to argue a lot, but agreed to disagree and still be good friends. RIP, Chet
