Jeff and family, what a wonderful life in the Parks family. Thank you so much for sharing. My heart was warmed with the love shown throughout the photos. Charles will surely be missed, but what awesome memories to be cherished in your hearts and minds. God bless all of you and may the strength of our loving heavenly Father abide in all of you during and after this great loss.

No one had a more positive profound impact in my life growing up than Uncle Chuck. I was always the kid that was in trouble, and he was always the kind man who stuck up for me. I could write a book with all the good times I had with that family as a kid. From sleeping at his home with my sister, to the cottage on the lake, to the trip to Florida, where I sang EVERY SINGLE SONG that came on the radio , all the way to Florida- he never flinched. I am grateful for his love and support. He was truly a kind tender heart and I loved him dearly. My prayers are with your family as you grieve the loss of a good man
