“ I met Cherie at Siloam Urgent Care where she did housekeeping. I opened and closed the clinic after all staff left and Cherie would come in after hours and we would visit. She recognized my accent being from the Midwest and we found out her cousin Donna just lived a few miles from my sister off 3 rd and Marion Rd. She loved making zucchini bread and would bring me her variations which were delicious. Once Cherie was diagnosed we spent a great deal of time together until her move to Sioux Falls. She was always cracking jokes about her situation and remained hopeful. We talked or texted messengered on a very regular basis. I loved her like a daughter and a friend. I greatly miss her. She added sunshine to all our lives who knew her.
