

Cynthia "Cindy" Anne Kumm

July 19, 1953 - October 11, 2023

OSMOND – Funeral service for Cynthia “Cindy” Anne Kumm, 70, of Osmond will be held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, October 14, 2023 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Osmond. Rev. Scott Kirchoff will be officiating. Interment will be held at the Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery, rural Osmond with a luncheon to follow. Visitation will be 4:00-7:00 p.m., Friday, also at Immanuel Lutheran Church. The service will be live-streamed on the Stonacek Funeral Chapel Facebook page. Cindy won her race and entered her heavenly home on Wednesday, October 11, 2023 at the Osmond General Hospital in Osmond. Memorials can be directed to Immanuel Lutheran Church or a charity of the donor’s choice. Stonacek Memorial Chapel in Osmond is in charge of the arrangements.

Cindy was born on July 19, 1953 to Henry and Henrietta (Behrmann) Huner of Napoleon, OH. She was born and raised on a farm in northwest Ohio, attended St. John Lutheran School, Ridgeville Corners High School and graduated from Napoleon High School. She went on to attend St. John College in Winfield, KS and moved to Osmond, NE where she served Immanuel Lutheran Church as a Parish Worker. She soon decided that she would never marry a farmer, a Kumm, or drive on country roads. God had other plans, and a good sense of humor, as she married a local farmer, Marvin Kumm on August 6, 1977 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Osmond. God blessed Cindy and Marv’s love for each other with 46 years of marriage and four sons: David, and wife Sarah of Lincoln; Jeff, and fiancé Kyleigh Lewis of Omaha; Rich, and wife Emily of Lincoln; and Joel, and wife Erin of Osmond.

Cindy was a wonderful grandmother to her six grandchildren: Trenton, Taryn, Evynn, Elliot, Grayson, and one on the way. She enjoyed attending their activities, watching and caring for them, and playing games with them. Her boys, their families, and her grandchildren were her pride and joy. Family gatherings, holidays, and card games with her boys brought her laughter and joy. Cindy was a woman of faith. She faithfully served Immanuel Lutheran Church and School in many ways: as a Parish Worker, a volunteer school librarian, a Sunday School teacher, VBS leader, church dinner coordinator, a member of Ladies Aid, funeral luncheon committee, and member of the Legion Auxiliary PEO. Cindy also loved music and enjoyed singing in the church choir.

Outside of church, Cindy served on the Library Board for the City of Osmond. Cindy also gave back to the community as a substitute teacher for over a decade and enjoyed serving the students and staffs in Creighton, Plainview, Osmond, Wausa, Randolph, St. Ludger's, St. Mary's, and other parochial schools in Northeast Nebraska. She treasured the relationships she built with students and staff members, related well to students of all ages, and impacted many lives. In addition to her husband, Marvin, and her four sons, Cindy is survived by her sisters, Harriet Brandt of Marshfield, WI and Barbara Huner (Kathy Crier) of Longmont, CO. She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Henrietta Huner.

John 14:27 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." Heaven welcomed a faithful soul. Cindy, well done, good and faithful servant!

Organist will be Lori Koehler. Jason Kumm, Todd Kumm, Brad Johnson, Bruce Johnson, Michael Asmus, and Christopher Brandt. Condolences may be expressed to the family on-line at www.stonacekfuneralchapel.com.

“ Profound condolences to you, Marv, and to your boys and their families. We didn't have the pleasure of knowing Cindy but she sounds like my kind of lady. I, too, got teased about marrying a farmer. It's been 57 years for Bill and me. We're still on our farm. -- Gloria Liewer Duenwald

“ Sending condolences to all of Cindy's family. I never met her, but her sister Barb is a good friend (didn't realize how much the two resemble each other). Also, David did some work for us when he stayed with Barb & Kathy here in Longmont one summer. May you feel God's loving arms around you as you adjust to life without Cindy. Vicki Uhr

“ I met Cindy when we were freshman at St. John's College many years ago. She was a great friend then and lots of fun. We kept in touch over the years with phone calls which I will greatly miss. I know she was a wonderful mom and grandma and I pray for Marv and all the family. She was a strong Christian so we rejoice that she is with our Savior now.
