“ My first bff. We grew up together so there are infinite memories- birthdays with Aunt Donna Deans shaped & decorated cakes, all Holidays like Memorial Day where we drank too much koolaid and got sick, all the Christmas programs, vacation Bible school- learning verses together, all the illnesses we shared like strep-mumps-measles, Sat mite outdoor movies in Hadar, all the picnics and potlucks. I can never forget the young days at your home and our farm with all your siblings. Those were the best. Rest peacefully Cindy. Love Peggy (McGrane)

“ Cindy was the mother hen of all of us rowdy boys who ran the Plainview neighborhood as kids. I grew up just a block down the road from Cindy’s house and was more than likely up to some mischief with Dustin or a bunch of us playing football in her front yard. One thing about Cindy is she always made sure we were having fun, kept us fed, and would always talk to us about staying out of trouble, but she always let us boys.... just be boys! Cindy is the kind of mother that would sacrifice anything and everything to make sure we were all happy. Cindy always had a special place in her heart for Dustin’s friends and welcomed us with a hug every time. As we all grew older and moved away, whenever we came back she was so excited to talk to us and ask us about our lives and what were doing and made sure we were still staying out of trouble. Cindy’s legacy for me will be that she cared more for all of us than herself. You will forever be missed Cindy, thank you for watching over us kids as we figured out life!
