

Cynthia Marie "Cindy" LaCroix

June 23, 1956 - April 9, 2019

NORFOLK – Cynthia Marie “Cindy” LaCroix, 62, of Norfolk died Tuesday, April 9, 2019 at her residence in Norfolk following a valiant 15 year battle with lung cancer. No services will be held. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Cindy was born June 23, 1956 in Columbus to Jim and Rose (Bosak) Weldon. She attended grade school in Columbus and graduated from Columbus High School. She then attended both Northeast Community College and Wayne State College. On February 14, 1977, she married Gene LaCroix. The couple lived in Norfolk, where they raised their son, Jason.

Cindy was employed at Nebraska Public Power District for 42 years, starting her career as a general clerk in Columbus, transferring to NPPD’s Regional Office in Norfolk, and progressing to supervisor at NPPD’s Customer Care Center.

Born with a passion for life, Cindy loved flowers and gardening. She was an avid reader and a lifetime learner. She enjoyed her annual fishing and camping excursions with Gene, and couldn’t get enough of her family trips to various locations throughout the United States and abroad with her mother, sisters, and sister-in-law.

Survivors include her husband Gene of Norfolk, son Jason of Yankton, SD, step-son Taven of Tecumseh, parents Jim and Rose Weldon of Columbus, sisters Kelley (Dan) Schaecher of Omaha, Sherri Jo (Bob) Wehrs of Milford, brother Scott (Michelle) Weldon of Lincoln, and many nieces and nephews.

“ Dear Jim, Rose, Kelly and Scott.
And to her Husband and Son.
I am sorry for your loss.
And a Beautiful Cousin, Friend and Lady.
I will miss her dearly. But I will remember her in my prayers and my heart.
But most of all, the fun times with her at Grandpa's and Grandma's.
Sliding down the fire escape at the school.
And at your home, that seems so long ago.
And when she brought out that crazy Skunk of yours.
I will remember her with a smile, just as she did to me.
She will truly be missed. But will be remembered in my thoughts always.
God Bless Her, and all of you.
Love
Rick Bosak

“ When your heart is empty, filling it with happy memories can help. Cindy has been a long time friend of our family. She was at the initial daytime Toastmasters meeting and it was her suggestion of Prime Time that named the Norfolk club. We both felt youth should be involved in public speaking. She mentored our son during Youth Leadership and I believe it was part of her inspiration that enabled him to speak at his grandpa's funeral recently.

I wrote the book called "Unsung Neighbors". In it I interviewed the heroines among us by recording their short stories. One thing Cindy had told me back in 2009 was she would be tied at the hip with cancer the rest of her life. She hated it but the positive spin of Cindy summed our lunch up so beautifully. She smiled at me and winked. She said, "Without it life wouldn't have as much meaning."

As her friend and colleague at NPPD, I knew her for many years, and I knew her to be a wonderful, caring, talented, vibrant, and dedicated person, friend and leader. Thank you so much for sharing your family with the NPPD family.*

What a beautiful and appropriate photo of Cindy you posted on this page in her memory; that's the epitome of the phrase "a picture is worth a thousand words". Cindy made a big, positive difference in this world and in the lives of many, and we miss her.

“ Rest in Peace little girl. Love goes with you. Your battle has been won. I gave you to God in baptism with your Uncle Emil in this little church in St Ed. (Although you almost slipped out of the silky blankets, we hung on.) And now God has taken you home. Give hugs and kisses to the whole bunch of them. We will miss you. ❤️
