“ He was my life long friend, my cousin and as a brother for almost 59 years. Our mothers used to walk us side by side when we were just infants. We went through childhood, the teenage years and finally adulthood together.

I will always miss him but yet he is still with me in my heart. The last 6 months of our time together we talked about God and shared stories in the bible more than the previous 58 years. I have an overwhelming faith in God and the life everafter. Buck is now in God's hands in a world where there is no pain or suffering. I love you Buck, til we meet again.
