“ I loved spending time with Grandma! Growing up you could either find us at the swimming pool (I was swimming and she was watching), at the Short Stop eating french fries and ice cream, or driving around town to see what was happening. We would also make trips out to the cemeteries to make sure that Grandpa wasn't causing any trouble and was still resting peacefully! I am going to miss her dearly but am so thankful that I got to spend so much quality time with her and make amazing memories!
