

Darlene E. Smith

February 3, 1928 - January 6, 2013

HOSKINS -- Darlene E. Smith, 84, of Norfolk died Sunday, Jan. 6, 2013, at her home. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hoskins, with burial in Hillcrest Memorial Park Cemetery, Norfolk. Visitation will be 4-7 p.m. Wednesday at Stonacek Funeral Chapel, Norfolk. The Rev. Rodney Rixe will officiate. She was born Feb. 3, 1928, at Hoskins to Paul Herman and Esther (Eckert) Deck.Â Baptized February 26, 1928 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hoskins, Confirmed May 21, 1941 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hoskins.Â She attended Wayne County District 11 to the eighth grade and graduated from Stanton High School in 1945. She married Delbert Smith on Nov. 26, 1951, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hoskins. She was born and raised in Wayne County. She taught school for three years, 1945-1947. After marriage they lived in Hoskins and later on moved to Norfolk. Darlene worked at Dale Electronics 22 years and retired in 1989. She enjoyed spending time with her family, planting flowers and pet cat Kitty. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church at Hoskins, VFW Auxiliary, Golden Combo, Senior Citizens Center, Norfolk, and a volunteer at VFW, Senior Citizen Center and Faith Regional Health Services, Norfolk. Survivors include children Darvin and wife Mary Anne Smith of Columbus, Delvene and husband Dale Otto of Cincinnati, Ohio, Delvin and wife Jodi Smith of Hadar; nine grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; two sisters, Verna Brogren-Miller of Hoskins, Ardyth and husband Donald Molacek of Howells; many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by parents, husband Delbert February of 1987 and one infant grandchild, Jeremy. Organist will be Mrs. Anne Gumm with congregational hymns "Amazing Grace," "How Great Thou Art," "On Eagles Wings." Casket bearers are Don Bermel, Jason Smith, Benjamin Smith, Travis Smith, Cody Smith, Brad Kyle.

Tribute Wall

“ Darlene E. Smith

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM