July 1, 1943 - March 14, 2015

NORFOLK — Dean A. Schaller, 71, of Wausa died Saturday, March 14, 2015, at the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

Memorial services will be at Stonacek Funeral Chapel, Norfolk, at 10:30 a.m. Saturday with private family inurnment at a later date. There is no visitation.

The Rev. Clark Jenkinson will officiate. Military rites will be by American Legion Post 16, VFW Post 1644 and United States Army Honors Guard.

He was born July 1, 1943, at Ainsworth to Cecil John and Georgia Ann (King) Schaller. He attended School District 17 between Long Pine and Ainsworth High School to the ninth grade. Dean was born in Ainsworth but grew up on ranch south of Long Pine. The family moved to Long Pine in 1948.

In 1956 the family moved to Buffalo Flats. Dean then moved to Bloomfield in the spring of 1960 and lived on Grandpa Smith's place.

He served in the United States Army Dec. 2, 1960, to Nov. 21, 1963. Basic training was done at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Later he was moved to Ft. Gordon in Georgia for advanced training to be a military policeman. He served with the Security Department for 2 ½ years with the CIA in Germany. He was honorably discharged in 1963, the same time President John F. Kennedy was killed. Dean moved to California after the service and met Judy Edwards, whom he married in 1963. In 1967 he moved back to Nebraska.

Judy passed away in 1977. Dean was married in 1975 to Joyce Krueger. In 1987 he married Betty Speidel.

Dean was an amazing father, grandfather, great-grandfather and brother.

Dean's favorite career was farming. He loved living in the country and enjoyed the peace and quiet it brought. Dean was known for his humor and always enjoyed a great game of poker. He will be missed by many.

Survivors include children Greg and wife Deb Schaller of Norfolk, Deanna Schaller of Norfolk, Tim and April Schaller of Sioux Falls, S.D., Teresa Rangel of Lincoln, Kristin (spouse Greg) Yeley of Wichita, Kan.; 20 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; brothers Don Schaller of Cocoa Beach, Fla., Will Schaller of Norfolk; sisters Carol Jones of Ainsworth and Georgia McKibbon of Norfolk. “ I knew Dean because my daughter was best friends with his granddaughter Brittany. One of my favorite memories was I helped Brittany die her hair a light red color. It looked so beautiful and natural. When she got home Dean was so mad. It was my fault for not asking him first. Much later all of us could laugh about it. At the time it was so not good. Dean had a big heart. He will be missed.
