God knows how much I loved this sweetheart Debra..my niece. She was so full of 'precious and vinegar'. I'll miss her spiritual messages. Her visit to N C for Mike's service left me weeping..it was our last visit. Daniel and Darin you are welcome at my table anytime. SYMPATHY TO ALL WHO SURROUNDED THIS CHILD OF GOD.

“ Debra was a wonderful friend. We met teaching nursing students in Warrensburg, MO and we started a wonderful friendship from that moment on. She did have an infectious laugh that brought great joy. She had a deep faith in our Lord and we often discussed it. She had an amazing love and dedication to her sons, and always shared what wonderful men they were becoming. Deb and I kept in contact after teaching and, even though times were difficult this past year for Deb, her sons and the Lord were always in the forefront. I will dearly miss Deb, she was a light in my, and so manys, life. She was a caring and loving friend, mother, and nurse. Above all, Debra was a woman of deep faith. Fly high sweet friend ❤️
