“ My good friend Delbert...where do I begin...as I try to let it sink in that you are gone, I can't help but recall all of the fun times we had. Countless mornings of sitting in the café in Verdigre drinking coffee and eating breakfast together, talking about the events in the world, what was going on in town, and all of the things we were doing at the time. Although I haven't had a chance to see you for a while, you never left my mind. You will forever be one of my best friends. God be with you Del...Helen and family, you all have my sympathies.
