“ Del was always "up" unless he was really mad about something - then he'd let us know! He was so energetic -always working and always available to lend a hand when needed. He was a self-starter - we never had to ask him to do the needed things around the apartments; he just did it. He was generous with his time and energy and enjoyed life fully, as such people seem to do. I can't believe he is gone so quickly after our visit on Tuesday afternoon - I had to admonish him to call the nurses when he needed to get up - there was no keeping him down! We talked and laughed and shared stories - he had some funny ones to tell! Truly, my husband and I are the richer for having known him and the world is the poorer for his departure. Rest in peace, Dear Friend, in the comforting arms of our Lord.

So well said Margo. He truly lived his life to the fullest and I will truly miss his laugh, his smile, and above all our camping in the South Dakota parks. He could possibly be singing "Roll out the Barrel" up their right about now...LOL. Quite the jokester he was, that's for sure. Missing you my dear brother.
