

Dian P. Schade

July 17, 1930 - July 26, 2012

PIERCE -- Services for Dian P. Schade, 82, Pierce, will be at 9 a.m. Tuesday at Stonacek Memorial Chapel here with the Rev. Gordon Bruce officiating. Burial will be at the Fort McPherson National Cemetery at Maxwell. Visitation will be 6-8 p.m. Monday. She died Thursday, July 26, 2012, at Pierce Manor. She was born July 17, 1930, at Hot Springs, S.D., to Henry R. and Elizabeth R. (Bemish) Slocum. She graduated from Columbus High School in 1948, Colorado Women's College and the University of Nebraska. She married John M. Schade July 5, 1953, at Columbus. They lived in western Nebraska. Her husband John was an ag teacher, feed salesman and later on an extension agent. They lived at Benkelman from 1972 to 2000, Holdrege five years and Bellevue six years. She had been a resident of the Pierce Manor since November of 2011 to be near her daughter Jane and family. Dian was an avid reader. She enjoyed crafts, crocheting, studying history, loved to watch sports, baseball, football and was a Nebraska fan. She was noted for her prize-winning flowers at the county fairs. She took great pride in her grandchildren and family. She was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Bellevue, sang in the church choir, was founder of Dundy County Pink Ladies Hospital Auxiliary, Diabetes Support Group, Meals On Wheels, Garden Club, Red Hat Society. Survivors include four daughters, Jonette and husband David Stupke of Frederick, Md., Joan Schade of Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan Schade of Bellevue, Jane and husband Alan Lindsay of Pierce; six grandchildren, Kendra and Jason Stupke, Erik, Benjamin, Tyler and Alex Lindsay; one sister, Dona

Milhollan of Easton, Md. She was preceded in death by her parents, and her husband John passed away Feb. 1, 1998. Pianist will be Linda Peekenschneider and soloist Margret Jenkins, "Abide With Me," and congregational hymn "Amazing Grace" and recorded hymn "Angels Among Us." Casket bearers will be Erik Lindsay, Benjamin Lindsay, Tyler Lindsay, Alex Lindsay, Kendra Stupke, Jason Stupke.

Tribute Wall

“ Dian P. Schade

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM