“ I can remember attending family events as a kid, and being amazed at how large and boisterous the Bruggeman family was. They were always a lot of fun to be around. We haven't seen them a lot in recent years, because we are spread all over the country and world now, but are nonetheless sorry to hear that a family member has passed. We are thinking of you, and wish we could have been there for the service. God bless you all at this time.
