“ To the family of Donna Riedel
I have good memories of working with Donna at United Nebraska Bank. She was always a fair supervisor and a good listener. She maintained a good supervisory roll but had that special personal touch. I was just thinking about her the other day before I learned of her passing. She will be missed by not only family.

“ We remember those times going to eat at the Smithfield Restaurant, the Cozy dates.
I loved talking with Donna while Ron & Reuben covered their bases. She was indeed a lady who had accomplished much but her most important was her love of God, her husband and her children & grandchildren. We talked grandparenting a lot. Reuben God has added a special angel to His Home for Christmas. Love Ron & Phyl
