

Doris M. Tiedgen

June 9, 1913 - March 26, 2013

NORFOLK -- Services for Doris M. Tiedgen, of Norfolk, will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Stonacek Funeral Chapel with burial in Prospect Hill Cemetery and the Rev. Dr. Richard Brown and Rev. Tim DeFor officiating. Visitation will be 5-7 p.m. Friday. She died Tuesday, March 26, 2013, at The Madison House. She was born June 9, 1913, at rural Meadow Grove to Burt Ray and Elsie (Collins) Segar. She attended the Sullivan School in rural Meadow Grove to the eighth grade and graduated from Meadow Grove High School in 1930. She was a member of First Christian Church, Norfolk. She also did volunteer work at the church. She married Howard William Tiedgen April 10, 1936, at Yankton, S.D. They lived out in Los Angeles, Calif., a short time. They moved back to Nebraska to Battle Creek and farmed. They moved to Norfolk in the 1950s and farmed. Doris worked in different retail department stores until she retired in 1968. Doris enjoyed spending time with her family, gardening and sewing. She had been a resident of The Madison House since October of 2012. Survivors include daughters Judy and husband Derald Nathan of Norfolk, Becky Murphy of LaVista, six grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Burt and Elsie; husband Howard passed away June 30, 1989; one sister, Bernadine Montgomery. Organist will be Shelby Stolze with "In The Garden," "How Great Thou Art," "Wind Beneath My Wings." Casket bearers are Aaron Anderson, Chris Murphy, Sean Murphy, Brandon Sonnefelt, Don Stolze, Alan Reed. Honorary casket bearers are great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Doris M. Tiedgen

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM