

Dorothy F. Krueger

April 21, 1931 - September 13, 2012

PIERCE -- Services for Dorothy F. Krueger, 81, of Yachats, Ore., will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Stonacek Memorial Chapel here with visitation starting at noon. Burial will be in Prospect View Cemetery. The Revs. Benjamin Burec and Homero Paredes will officiate. She died Thursday, Sept. 13, 2012, at Yachats. She was born April 21, 1931, at Monroe, Wash., to John and Amelia (Saylor) Harris. She attended Kings Valley Grade School and Philomuth, Ore., High School, class of 1949. Following graduation she went to Washington where she worked for a doctor, caring for his children. While attending church at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, she met Clarence Krueger, and they were married April 22, 1950, at Norfolk. She was blessed with eight children. She worked as a nursing assistant, then worked in her and her husband's own office equipment business, cleaning typewriters and selling office supplies and machines and doing the bookkeeping. In later years, she helped her husband in growing a large organic garden. They sold the produce and plants. Dorothy became a baptized member of the Seventh Day Adventist Reform Movement Church in her late 70s. She enjoyed her church family. In earlier years, Dorothy liked crocheting and needlework. In later years, she enjoyed reading, playing Yahtzee and bingo, bird watching, watching the ocean waves and spending time with family. Survivors include husband Clarence F. Krueger of Pauline, Neb.; sons Matthew and wife Dianne Krueger of Albany, Ore., Bryan and wife Cheryl Krueger of Omaha; daughters Lorretta Harris of North Platte, Christine and husband Bill Hall of Pauline, Neb.; Anita Krueger of Yachats, Bonita and husband Bob Harrison of Yachats, Alma and husband Don Hodges of Cozad; and brother Donald Harris of Philomuth, Ore.; 27 grandchildren, 39 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Amelia and John Harris; son Clarence B. Krueger; sisters Edith Carol Wilkes and Barbara Pease; brothers George (Lee) Harris, Robert (Bob) Harris, Vernon (Bud) Harris and Henry (Hank) Harris; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
