

Doug D. Gansebom

August 29, 1955 - June 6, 2018

OSMOND --- Funeral service for Doug D. Gansebom, age 62, of Osmond will be held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, June 9, 2018 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Osmond with Rev. Glen Emery officiating. Interment will be in the Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery, rural Osmond. Visitation will be held 4:00-7:00 p.m., Friday, also at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Osmond. Doug passed away on Wednesday, June 6, 2018 at his home with the love of his family around him.

Stonacek Memorial Chapel of Osmond is in charge of the arrangements. Douglas D. Gansebom was born to Dwaine and Betty (Albrecht) Gansebom on August 29, 1955 at the Osmond Hospital. Doug was a lifetime member of Immanuel Lutheran Church. He was baptized in September 25, 1955 and confirmed on April 27, 1969. He attended Immanuel Lutheran grade school and graduated from Osmond High School in 1973 where he was an outstanding athlete and was crowned Homecoming King his senior year. Doug married Cheryl Backer Munter on April 2, 1982 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Osmond. Their wedding day started out a beautiful spring day and ended with a blizzard that kept the wedding guests captive at the City Auditorium until morning. They settled on the farm south of Osmond, where Cheryl still lives. Doug was a dairy farmer for 42 years, selling the last of the cows in 2015. He loved farming, seeing God all around him in nature. He was a devoted Christian and a loving husband, father and grandfather. He was happiest on the farm and with his family and took much joy from sharing his

Doug is survived by his wife, Cheryl Gansebom of Osmond; sons Beau (Anna) Gansebom of Osmond and James (Lynn) Munter of Randolph; four grandchildren: Isaiah Gansebom of Osmond and John, Natalie and Emma Munter of Randolph; siblings: Linda Peters of Norfolk, Cindy (Dave) Hoffman of Osmond, Dallas (Lynne) Gansebom of Hadar, Ann (Steve) Pint of Leawood, Kansas, Darin (Mindi) Gansebom of Bennington and David (Anna) Gansebom of Plainview; mother-in-law Loraine Backer of Randolph; sister-in-law Carmen Shaffer of Randolph and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dwaine and Betty Gansebom, and father-in-law James Backer.

Organist for the service will be Lori Koehler.

Congregational hymns will be "Lift High The Cross" , "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" , "How Great Thou Art" , and "Amazing Grace."

Casket Bearers will be Steve Shaffer Jr., John Munter, Shane Gansebom, Troy Peters, Carl Hoffman, Terry Hoffman, Alex Pint, Kole Gansebom.

Honorary Pallbearers are Jerry Peters, Sam Pint, Karson Gansebom, Natalie Munter, Emma Munter, Valerie Ankeny, Cassie Boehm, Karlee Fuscher, Kelsey Gansebom, Kennedy Gansebom, Jennifer Shaffer, Sierra Pint, Abe Pint.

Condolences may be expressed to the family on-line at www.stonacekfuneralchapel.com.

“ Cheryl, Beau, Anna and Isaiah,

Amanda and I want to wish our deepest sympathy for our brother Doug's passing. What a true man of God he was! Anything physical he touched, any person he came into contact with, any ailment he faced, any spiritual hurdle he was met with, NONE of it was not dealt with UNTIL he spoke the Word of God into it, through it, and asked that the blood of Jesus cover whatever situation he was facing or dealing with. TWO VALVE STEMS UP as Doug would say, with the authority of our Saviour Jesus Christ!

Doug was such a blessing to us! He prayed with me countless times during hardships, drove to our place when I need an ear to hear, and was always willing to share a testimony (he had so many) that helped me process whatever was bothering me at any time. Doug, I honestly believe that when he met Jesus, Jesus said "come, please enter my kingdom, thy good and faithful servant!"

We love you guys! The one thing that Doug always told me, was: Greg, always praise Him. Even when you do not feel like it, even when times are tough, always praise Him!! God is in complete control! Praise Him! Priceless!!

I praise God every day that He put Doug in our life! With tears in my eyes, I suffered right along with him as he battled this horrible cancer. Countless nights of praying for complete healing, listening to my son Nickolas pray that "God, please heal Doug's butt!!, and asking for God's will be done in our own prayers, we must take into consideration that God has bigger plans for Doug's eternal life! He was the epitome of Mathew 24 verse 13: "but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved." Doug LIVED that verse! Even though he was pushing through pain, spending countless hours in treatment, with his loving wife at his side, he LIVED Mathew 24:13. Doug, you were such a great model to these words spoken by Jesus, and I thank you for modeling that to me and our family. We love you Cheryl, Beau, Anna and Isiah! God truly sent all of us someone that will never be forgotten. Thank you Father, and we will continue to praise you "two valve stems up!!"

Thanks Greg. We'll never forget "two valve stems up!" There's no doubt he's with Jesus now. He was the boldest man I ever knew in giving his testimony in Christ. I can only hope to be as bold some day. Can't wait to see him again. Thanks for sharing! :)

“ My deepest sympathies to you Cheryl and the whole Gansebom family; mourning with you all. It was such a pleasure getting to know Doug better over the past 5 years as he would attend prayer meetings that my uncle Jim Clough would host. Doug was a dynamic man of God who loved to share the Lord with everyone who would listen. He will be missed by many. May the Lord bless and comfort you all during this time.

*Sincerely,
Brian Kumm*
