“ Edna loved to play cards. As a Home Instead Senior CareGiver, I got to play cards with her during my shifts in her home. She preferred to do her own house chores so we had to complete things if she was napping or while she ate her lunch or was at the hair salon. She enjoyed help most when I was playing cards with her or taking her out for a drive. Then she was full of smiles and so thankful. When she went to the Pierce Premier Estates, I made sure to pat her arm and give her a hug whenever I was there visiting or working with another HISC client. She was very happy to join our St. John LWML-hosted Bingo night. She lived a long life proud of her family! My sincere condolences. Carol Taylor
