

Eleanor May Weber

August 26, 1928 - November 11, 2025

NORFOLK – Eleanor, "Elly", Weber passed away on November 11th, 2025. Elly was born August 26, 1928 in Lakeview, Iowa and was raised in Sac City, Iowa. She attended business school, and after getting business experience, she opened her own store, Weber's, in Norfolk, NE. The store sold tobacco, newspapers, magazines, cards, and gifts. The store was in operation for years in downtown.

She then went to work as a bookkeeper for One Stop Auto, from which she retired. Elly enjoyed sewing and watching sports. She visited family for vacation and also went on several trips with them. She also enjoyed her close relationship with the Brenden family. She celebrated holidays and attended gatherings with the family.

Elly is predeceased by her beloved brother, Joseph Weber. She looked up to him for advice and friendship. She is also predeceased by her sister-in-law, Helen, niece Susan, and nephew Danny and Janet's husband, David Robertson.

Elly is survived by her nieces Janet Robertson and Nancy Surman (Everett), and great nephew, Colton Robertson and his family.

Elly is also survived by Tricia Brenden Brown and Tracy Ruitenber, devoted family friends, who cared for Elly before, during, and after her parents, Jerry and Barbara Brenden passed.

There are no services planned.
