

Elsie "Sis" M. Rohde

December 2, 1947 - July 3, 2025

RANDOLPH – Funeral service for Elsie M. Rohde, 77 of Randolph, will be held 10:30 AM Wednesday, July 9, 2025, at the United Methodist Church, Carroll, NE. Officiating the service will be Pastor Nick Baker. Burial will take place at Elmwood Cemetery, Carroll. Visitation will be held one hour prior to service time. Elsie died on Thursday, July 3, 2025, at the Colonial Manor in Randolph after a two-year fight with lung and brain cancer following an aneurism in June 2023. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Elsie was born December 2, 1947, at home in Carroll, Nebraska in 1947 to Carl and Mabel (Shufelt) Janssen and picked up the name 'Sis' because her brother couldn't pronounce her name. It stuck and became her given name throughout her life. Sis attended grade school in Carroll and went to Wayne High School until 10th grade; she later received her GED. She loved to spend time with her first granddaughter, Jackie Marie Petersen, and they loved searching for treasures while thrifting together. One of her favorite things in life was caring for her many cats that she doted on in the barn of the farm where she lived. She worked at various places in the Randolph area. Sis really enjoyed reading and doing word games in her spare time and was great at both. She also enjoyed sewing, crocheting, and wood-working.

Sis is survived by her loving partner Larry Kessler of Randolph, sister Carla (Gary) Oakeson of Bennington, son Jody (Amy) Rohde of Fawn Grove, Pennsylvania, daughter Kelly (Bruce) Breiner of Norfolk, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Sis was preceded in death by her parents Carl and Mabel Janssen, brother Richard Janssen, Daughter Carmen Petersen.

sis and I worked at the Hilltop for yeas we had a good time after hours. The best times were riding motorcycles on the back of our special guys. These are cherished memories. Sis was a fun lady ❤️🙏
