“ George was a beautiful gentle soul and my big teddy bear brother. He was my inspiration to push past life's challenges and encourage me to accept God's will. Always there for a hug and to make me smile. I'll treasure the precious memories we shared. At Mass today, I could hear you as you now sing in heaven's adoring choir. I love you and will miss you endlessly.....The celebration in heaven must be glorious.

“ A great brother. I love you Judy and all of you kids. George was an amazing man. Love for his family, his friends, his community. But best of all, his love for God. What a beautiful thought to know he is receiving his gift of everlasting life with his and our God. He was a faithful servant. He ran the good race and never gave up. Enjoy your reward dear brother.
