“ I have simple and fond memories of Georgia at the hospital. She was so helpful, down to earth and cheerful, with a high pitched laugh that was a joy to hear. I am very sad to hear of her passing.

“ Jill and family: I remember when you were a promise in your momma's belly. You put sparkle in her eyes; I wanted you to know that. As someone who worked with your mom for 35 years, I also want you to know she was the cream of the crop. She actually trained me as an LPN and, 10 years later was my Barney Fife when I was supposed to be Andy Griffith as a department head at LCH. I lasted a couple of years but only because Georgia kept my head above water. In the last 20 years, our roles both changed and Georgia was always more adaptable than I. She could tackle anything and do it admirably and with grace. My best metaphor is this: at FRHS, she was Alexa with arms and legs—ever ready and reliable, long on organization and knowledge. Her standards were high and her heart was pure gold. I will miss her. My sincerest heart aching sympathies
