“ Glen was a great person. I knew him from Liberty Centre. He was always happy and a joy to be around. I have missed him the past few years and wondered where he was. I am sorry for your loss.

“ The memory that I have of Glen was at first day of school. I believe I was in 3rd grade. Glen was in the upper room. We had a brand new teacher and she was trying to get to know all her new students. Glen walked into the room and the teacher mistook Glen for one of her students. She was so embarrassed.

The other memory is from Christ Lutheran and how glad he always was to see me and how much he loved Jesus!

“ *My sympathy to the Kolterman Family.
Glen & I were classmates and members of the class of "61" We shouted out "Go Bluejays" many times as we cheered on our teams.
