Glenda "Gaga" Bartz was born Nov. 7, 1950, in Sioux City, Iowa, to Harry and Stella (Frye) Green. She grew up in North Sioux City, S.D., attending McCook Elementary and Riverside High School.

On May 2, 1970, Glenda married Leon Bartz of Crofton in Sioux City. After living in numerous locations, they moved to Osmond in 1987. Eventually they founded B and C Industrial Contractors where she handled the office and bookkeeping responsibilities. The couple were blessed with three children, Robin, Amie and Travis.

Glenda had a deep love of family that extended well beyond her immediate family. She accumulated many dear friends at the various places she lived.

Glenda enjoyed spending time with family and friends playing cards and just visiting.

She was affectionately known as Gaga by more than just her grandchildren, whom she adored with her whole being.

Glenda is survived by her husband Leon; daughters Robin (Paul) Koehler and Amie (Motis) Vargas, and son Travis, all of Osmond; seven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; one sister, Kerry Olsen of North Sioux City, S.D.; two sister-in-laws, Leora Renken of Sioux City, Iowa, and Charolette Henseth of Irene, S.D.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Harry and Stella Green; parents-in-law Elton and Hilda Bartz; brothers-in-law Melvin, Roger and Larry Bartz; and sister-in-law Carol Bartz.

Casket bearers are Michael Vargas, Tanner Vargas, Tyler Gansebom, Kearney Lackas, Damon Olson, Dennis Kuhl, Doug Schmit and Dave Buchholz.
