“ Want to let the family know how sorry I am. Not sure what words really help in this situation. But I'm so sorry. Your in my prayers and thoughts. May God give you strength. This isn't easy but you will get through it.

“ Gordy I can't believe your really gone. I lost you once when we drifted apart. Then I found you again. We had hoped of rekindling what we had before. But it wasn't long you went home. God had other plans for you. That we didn't know about. So now your really gone from me. I will always love you. And never will go on without thinking about you. May you rest in peace now my love. Your in my prayers and heart forever. Love you good bye for now my angel from above. Love you always.
