

Irene V. Chapman

March 26, 1926 - January 17, 2017

NORFOLK -- Funeral service for Irene V. Chapman, 90, of Norfolk will be held at 10:00 a.m., Monday, January 23, 2017 at the Westridge United Methodist Church in Norfolk with David Clement officiating. Interment will be held at the Crown Hill Cemetery, rural Madison. Visitation will be held 3-5:00 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 22 at the Stonacek Funeral Chapel in Norfolk. Irene passed away Tuesday, January 17, 2017 at the St. Joseph's Care Center in Norfolk. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

The daughter of Reese and Sarah (Trine) Turley was born March 26, 1926, in Stanton County.

She attended grade school in Enola and graduated from Enola High School. She then earned her teacher's certificate from Wayne State College.

She married Alvin R. Chapman on July 7, 1946, at Trinity Methodist Church in Madison. After Irene earned her teacher's certificate, she taught in Stanton County for two years. She helped her spouse, Alvin, with chores and farming in rural Norfolk while raising their seven children. Irene later worked from Region IV before retiring in 1989.

She enjoyed traveling, puzzle books and playing cards.

She was a member of Westridge United Methodist Church in Norfolk, the VFW Auxiliary, volunteered at the Elkhorn Valley Museum, Meals on Wheels, Northeast Community College and the Arc in Norfolk

Survivors include her children: Larry (Beverly) Chapman of Denver, Colo., Lee Chapman of Omaha, Lois (Lester) Coughtry of Norfolk and Leon Chapman of Norfolk, son-in-law Tom Fryer of Norfolk, Lillian Chapman of Alliance, Loralie (William) Jarvis of Norfolk; 14 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her spouse, Alvin Chapman; parents Reese and Sarah; daughter Linda Fryer; two daughters-in-law Mary Chapman and Carol Anne Chapman; infant grandson Tommy Fryer; siblings Irma Lojek, Blain Turley and Vernon Turley.

A duet will be performed by her granddaughters, Melissa Jarvis and Monica Clement, singing "Beyond The Sunset" and "When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder."

Casket bearers will be Daniel Coughtry, David Coughtry, Nathaniel Chapman, Randy Fryer, Micah Chapman, Michael Jarvis and Nathan Jarvis.

“ To Lois, Les, Dan, and David,

Sorry to hear of your mother's passing. This will be my expression of sympathy since I could not find your home address to mail a card. I realized when Les left that you were sitting nearby with family at Whiskey Creek on Sunday evening.

Thinking of you,

George, Marilyn, Mike, and Eric Moyer
