Services for Irene Williams, 84, Norfolk, will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday at New England Congregational Church in Stanton. The Rev. Steve Uzzell will officiate. Burial will be in Hillcrest Memorial Park Cemetery in Norfolk. Lunch will be served after the service, before the interment. Visitation will be 4-8 p.m. Thursday at Stonacek Funeral Chapel in Norfolk. She died Tuesday, May 31, 2011, at Heritage of Bel Air Nursing Home in Norfolk. Irene Bertha Marie Williams, the daughter of Fred and Bertha (Ketelsen) Rohlf, was born Sept. 9, 1926, at Bloomfield. Irene moved with her parents to Brunswick, where she attended School District 61. Her family later moved to Creighton, where she graduated from high school in 1943. Irene worked as a waitress for several years at Mary's Cafe in Norfolk. She married Howard Williams on Jan. 3, 1968, in Norfolk. They lived at Alda, where Howard was employed at New Holland Machine Co. In 1985, they retired and moved to Stanton. Irene was actively involved in activities at the New England Congregational Church. Irene and her husband Howard enjoyed gardening, then canning and freezing their harvests. They spent time together traveling and going fishing. Irene especially enjoyed playing cards. Irene faithfully cared for her husband during his battle with cancer. Irene was very appreciative to her wonderful neighbors who were always there for her. Ray and Carolyn Haddock, Darlene Zoubek and Inez Barth. In April 2011, Irene's health deteriorated and she moved to The Heritage of Bel-Air Nursing Home in Norfolk. Survivors include many nieces, nephews and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Howard on June 15, 2003; her brothers, Edward and Marvin, and a sister, Helen. Music will be provided by organist Mary Drott. Casket bearers will be Cody Loughrey, Tony Zechmann, Gene Horton, Ronald Pohlman, Bryan Cordner, and George Benson Jr.
