Jami was born on July 11, 1971 in Norfolk, NE to Richard and Joan (Preusker) Otjen. She attended grade school at St. John's in Battle Creek, graduated from Battle Creek High School in 1990, attended 3 years at Wayne State College, and later earned her Associates degree in Business from Northeast Community College in Norfolk. Jami married Gary Frederick on November 5, 1994 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Battle Creek.

Jami's love for her family was immeasurable. She adored her husband and children, who blessed her with bonus kids, cherished granddaughters, and numerous grand puppies. Her unwavering faith was the foundation of her life, radiating through everything she did. She was a safe haven, steadfast supporter, and lover of everyone, welcoming all with kindness and unconditional love. Time spent together, especially camping, golfing, playing games, and Sunday fundays and dinners, was sacred to her and created lifelong memories. As a talented baker, she showed her love through food, and her legendary cupcakes which were unforgettable. Her supportive nature was undeniable, shining brightest as she cheered for her son in wrestling which carried on through her three granddaughters, though she joyfully shifted for a time to support her baby boy in basketball. Jami's inspiration for life, love and family was mutually shared between her and her daughter.

She treasured her siblings whom she grew up reeking havoc with, and her family graciously carries this tradition on. Jami took great joy in nurturing a special and unique relationship with each of her nieces and nephews, making sure each felt seen and deeply loved. Jami valued the little things in life like snowmen, gnomes, and all things Christmas, often accented with her signature favor color purple. She was deeply committed to giving back, and she had a special place for Relay for Life. She was a dedicated employee for 33 years at Cardinal, where her coworkers became family, and her smile light up the place, as it did any room. Whether caring for others or simply enjoying time with those she loves, she lived life with warmth, generosity, and joy. She will be missed forever but never forgotten, as her memory is woven into everyone's life she touched and found a place in each heart she met.

Jami is survived by her wonderful husband Gary Frederick of Battle Creek, mother Joan Otjen of Battle Creek, mother-in-law Barb Frederick of Norfolk, three amazing children, Kayla (Casey) Petersen, Tyler (Blair) Frederick, and Payton Frederick (Renee Brummels) all from their hometown of Battle Creek, gifted with three granddaughters; Emma Petersen, Parker Petersen, and Suttyn Petersen. Jami was the baby of her family and was one of five siblings; her only brother Steve (Tami) Otjen of Battle Creek with their children Jordan

(Robin) Otjen and Natasha (Nick) Onnen. The oldest of her 3 sisters; Linda (Pat) Pelc of Norfolk along with their children Derek (Anna) Pelc and Tonya (Andrew) Hoff. Her next sister in line is Tina (Robb) Schnizler of Central City and their children Josh (Katie) Schnizler, Nicole (Joel) Ferguson, Aaron (Makenzy) Schnizler, and Shelby Schnizler (Marco Velecela). Last but not least, her twin sister Jodi (Barry) Stueve of Battle Creek and their children Levi (Jamie) Stueve, Lexi Stueve (Dustin Walters), and Luke (Lesley) Stueve.

“ My sincerest condolences to Jami's family and friends. I was fortunate to meet her and the Cardinal gals at HyVee for some after work "shopping" a few years ago and always enjoyed running into them there. The obituary was beautifully written and captured all things wonderful about Jami. May you all find peace in knowing she will be your guardian angel. RIP, Jami.
