“ *Bill and Jane were one of the first people that had us over when we first started going to NHBC 2 years ago. They were very hospitable and sweet. Very encouraging and a great example. Jane brought her granddaughter and her 2 friends to awana every week despite her condition and I really hope we can keep those 3 girls coming. I know she prayed for her family every day and she expressed that to us. Love and prayers to all of you!!

“ Even when Jane was critically ill before her transplant, she always asked about us and our fight with cancer. She always put her illness away to ask and care for her friends and church family. When she did talk about her personal fight, it was in a win, win situation. Her faith and her family was her strength. Our thoughts and prayers are with Bill and the family. Ed and Carrie Taulbee
