“ I'm so saddened to learn of Jeannie's passing. She was the oldest of the extended-family of Colfack/Schilousky cousins that all lived on the same block on Main Street in Ewing, NE during our early childhoods. I vowed I would never forgive her when she took my .22 caliber rifle away from me and threw it down into the outhouse behind her home. It had been given to me by another cousin, Bobby Schilousky (since departed). I was so angry! Of course, I have long since forgiven her and if the truth were known, I have long suspected that my parents put her up to the act. After all, I was only six or seven years old and even in little Ewing, a youngster of my age running around with a real gun was a bit disconcerting! I lost touch with Jeannie when my family moved to Albion, NE when I was in the third grade, but was aware she married a Navy Chief Petty Officer (Jim). I, myself, served a 24-year career in the Navy and am sorry that I was never able to "swap sea-stories" with her and Jim. My heart-felt condolences go out to Jim and the rest of her family.
