

Jeannine L. Reed

November 22, 1932 - October 11, 2013

NORFOLK -- Jeannine L. Reed, 80, of Norfolk died Friday, Oct. 11, 2013, at the Golden Living Center. Private family services and inurnment will be at a later date. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge. She was born Nov. 22, 1932, in rural Wayne County to Elmer and Ethel (Anderson) Kirstine and graduated from Pierce High School in 1950. Jeannine was born on a farm in Wayne County. The family later moved to Pierce County where they lived on various farms. She attended elementary at the rural schools. She married LeRoy Reed on July 9, 1950, at Pierce. LeRoy passed away in May of 1993. After Jeannine and LeRoy were married, they lived in Norfolk for most of her life except for one year in which they moved to Anchorage, Alaska, where LeRoy was stationed during the Korean War. Jeannine worked as a waitress in various restaurants. Jeannine also worked at Gambles Service Center for three years and Stinson's Department Store for three years. She was baptized at Zion Lutheran Church, Pierce, and was a member of Mount Olive Lutheran Church and American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors are children Randall and wife Pat Reed of Phoenix, Ariz., Victoria Henrickson of Norfolk, Warren "Butch" Reed of Seattle, Wash., Eileen and husband Randall Volquardsen of Norfolk; seven grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; and one sister, Geraldine Arndt of Grand Island. She was preceded in death by husband LeRoy; her parents, Elmer and Ethel; one sister, Phyllis LuJean Reed; one brother in infancy, two granddaughters, one great-granddaughter. Memorials may be sent to the Reed Family, care of E.

Volquardsen, 210 Adams Ave., Norfolk, Neb., 68701.

Tribute Wall

“ Jeannine L. Reed

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM