“ There are no words to express the hurt I feel from loosing my close friend Jeff. I enjoyed our many days together at the airport working and kicking around. Jeff always had a smile for you and was willing to do whatever it took to help you out. I will miss him dearly. My sympathies and prayers to his family.

“ Jeff was so kind and helpful to my family and me. He was very generous of his time and talents. One Christmas he put together a wooden play kitchen for my daughter and he always was happy to help my parents with any yard project. Jeff was a wonderful gardener and shared his delicious produce, a labor of love. He will be greatly missed but lives on in our hearts. Thank you, Jeff, for being a blessing in all our lives.
