“ The first real concrete memory I have of Jeremiah was when I was in Kindergarten...we were probably 6. He said it would be a good idea for me to roller skate down the slide on my backyard swing set, maybe 4 ft off the ground. I did and I had a really sweet landing so I told him to go get my mom. When my mom came out to watch, I didn't land so gracefully and I broke my arm. That really stunk and that what was I always remembered him for. We also spent a lot of time together at our grandparents farm. Mostly we rode the 3-wheeler together where he ran over my ankle. We also spent a summer riding the bean bar where instead of spraying weeds I sprayed his shoes pink in retaliation for all that happened before ❤️ I have great childhood memories of him and he will always hold a special place in my heart. Lesly and kids, I am so, so sorry for the hole that's in your hearts forever missing the special guy that was your husband and dad.
