

Joseph D. Deichmann

November 30, 2000 - August 9, 2017

NORFOLK – Funeral service for Joseph D. Deichmann of Norfolk will be held at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, August 12, 2017 at the First Christian Church in Norfolk with Marshal Hardy officiating. Burial will be held at the Prospect Hill Cemetery, Norfolk. Visitation will be held 4:00-8:00 p.m., Friday, Aug. 11, at the Stonacek Funeral Chapel in Norfolk. Stonacek Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Joseph David Deichmann began his heavenly journey on August 9th, 2017 at the age of 16. He was born on November 30th, 2000 to adoring parents Darrin and Roxanne (Roberts) Deichmann in Norfolk, NE. He was one of seven children where he fell fourth in line. He committed himself to the Lord and was baptized at a young age. He was homeschooled and then attended St. Paul's Lutheran School for grade school. He was currently beginning his junior year of High School at Lutheran High Northeast in Norfolk. When he was little, Joe loved Monster Trucks and Hot Wheels. As he got older, Joe played in sports and loved the outdoors, yet he always made time for his family and his friends, which he had a lot of. Joe's shoe obsession was known by many. Although he was quieter than some of his other siblings, Joe had a thoughtful and caring spirit with an effortless humor about him.

Joe's memory is kept alive by his loving parents, Darrin and Roxanne Deichmann of Norfolk, brother James (Chelsea) Deichmann and their daughter Naomi of Ohio, brothers Elijah, Isaac, and Judah all of Norfolk, sister Molly of Omaha and sister Lydia of Norfolk, and grandparents Gordan and Jewel Deichmann of Central City and Beatrice Roberts of Norfolk. He is preceded in death by his infant brother, Noah, and grandfather Jack Roberts. Following the burial, the family will be spending time together cherishing the memories of their beloved son and brother. Memorials may be made to the family for a later designation.
