“ Joyce was my first “real” boss or first boss to who I respected. She taught me the value of hard work in that little kitchen in The Shortstop. She was proud of what she served and I think all us girls who worked there were proud too. She had a zeal for life and seemed to be close with the local community. She worked super hard but all the while had fun. She taught me so much, how to make the perfect burger, cut up a chicken, and make the perfect ice cream cone. She treated her girls almost like her own. I miss her. I will pray for her to be in peace with her Lord. Carrie Fenton (Nitz)

“ Mom was a strong women and a pillar of strength for our family growing up! I wrote on Facebook that although it truly was a sad day but yet a joyous one on Wednesday, April 1st when Mom passed away. Officially, Mom will always be known as the fifth death in the state of Nebraska of the Covid-19 virus, but I'll always remember her as a great mother to us three boys. Many have written how they loved her and how she made them smile. I rejoice in knowing Mom knew her Savior Jesus Christ and that she is in heaven with Joe, Dad and Dwaine and her sister Donna. Mom had a big heart and will be missed. I love you Mom! Jeff Sloan. I'd love to hear from any of you at jeffreysloan820@gmail.com or if you need to contact me at (402) 699-9480. Karen and I live in Omaha, but love to stay connected with family and friends.
