Stonacek Memorial Chapel in Pierce is in charge of the arrangements. Joyce was born on October 17, 1933 in Allen, Nebraska to Elmer and Ella (Bass) Kingston. She was baptized on March 21, 1940 at the Methodist Church in Allen, NE. Joyce attended a rural grade school near Allen until 1940 when the family moved to Wayne after the death of her father. She attended & graduated from Wayne Prep School in 1951. She met her future husband while working as a waitress at the Wayne Cafe. Joyce enjoyed the social sport of roller skating during her high school years, but learned to love dancing and card playing more after her marriage to Gilbert Splittgerber on August 23, 1951 at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne. Joyce was confirmed December 14, 1952 when she joined St. John's Lutheran church in Pilger. The couple lived & farmed in Wayne, Pierce and Antelope counties through out their marriage until retiring to Plainview in 1998. Joyce and Gilbert belonged to a couples card club for over 60 years where they formed friendships still precious to this day.

Since 2017, Joyce has resided primarily at Edgewood Vista in Norfolk, Brookdale in Wayne, Country House in Lincoln, and Tabitha Journey Hospice House in Lincoln, where she has courageously endured the relentless progression of her Alzheimer's disease.
