Judy Ann (Van Dyke) Stewart of rural Battle Creek was born Dec. 9, 1941, to Norbert and Mildred Van Dyke and grew up in Humphrey.

She is survived by her longtime companion, Lawrence "Red" Henery; two sons, J.D. Stewart of Lake Ozark, Mo., and Brian Stewart of Leawood, Kan.; a granddaughter, Samantha Lupo of Omaha; a grandson, Dale Stewart of Hastings; a great-grandson, Charlie Lupo; and nine siblings, Don Van Dyke, Janet Costle, Bob Van Dyke, Bill Van Dyke, Jeanne Kapels, Gerry Van Dyke, Steve Van Dyke, Debbie Clausen and Kathy Wagner.

Dyke, Bob Kapels and Jeff Wagner.

“ Our sympathy to Red, JD, Brian and Judy's brothers and sisters. We feel so sad that we had not gotten any notice of her passing. We surely would have been there for you, but only found out after the funeral was over. In her memory we will send for Masses to the Benedictions in Schuyler and to Fr. Joe Hemmer in Alaska. Again you have our condolences as we have nice memories of growing up and visiting the Van Dykes and going to the rollerskating rink there. Those were fun times. Fay Keller

“ Sending our sympathy and prayers to Judy's family. We worked with her at Sherwood's then years later purchased her vending route from her. Many people would always inquire about her. She was a beautiful person. Sorry for your loss

“ I was so sorry to read of Judy's passing. I always tried to go through her checkout at Wal-Mart as she was always so pleasant and I enjoyed visiting with her. The last time I saw her was at Black Cow-Fat Pig when we were both attending a dinner seminar on walk-in bath tubs and she came up and tole me I wouldn't be seeing her at Wal-Mart for awhile as she would be taking a leave of absence. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Judy’s family,
I met your mom when I joined the Henery family 10 years ago. She reached out to me and we became friends. She had such a kind heart and I’m going to miss her so much.

I loved hearing her talk about her kids. She was very proud of you and it meant a lot to her that you loved her so much.

May God bring you peace through wonderful memories of your loving mom.

“ Our deepest sympathies to J.D., Brian and families on the loss of Judy. I got to visit with her quite a bit when I sat at Walmart for Humana a few years ago. Judy sure loved when you all were able to get together. God's Peace to you all.
