“ Julz... it's been 2 years.. and you're still just as missed as you were the day you left. There have been a lot of revelations since you've been gone; a lot of tears.. a lot of laughter at the memories you left with me, and with those who loved you. I'm still honored that you let me into your life, and i still thank you with everything i have in me, for saving mine. I can't repay you for the love you showed me. You are missed, every moment of every day. Ughhh. This is hard. Doing life without you in it honestly sucks. As you would say, this hurts my heart.. I don't wanna have to be writing these words for you. But I am. And I will continue to!! You mattered!! I love you superwoman! Rest easy girl.

“ 365 days you've been gone today. I wish you were still here, Julz! I miss you more than you'll ever know. I think of you daily, and I yell at you constantly, expecting you to come back with some witty comeback.. but there's just.. silence. I want you to know that you're missed. You're loved. You're longed for, and remembered. Always, Superwoman. Always. Fly high girl.

“ I love you, Julz! I still can't believe that you're gone. You were one of my best friends for eight years! I miss your voice, your laughter, your hugs, the music, our quiet times together, and our goofy times.. our random conversations, our dance parties... just.. everything... You, Trying to teach me how to cook, which was a bust, you hysterically laughing at me when I hit the curb with my car just trying to park...Our game nights; you won jenga more times than I can count, and that random trivia card game that we played so many times.. the one that both of us were convinced was from the 50s or something, because neither of us knew the answers lol! You getting lost and deciding you were in the Nebraska triangle lmao! Too much! Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your life. There's such a hole in my heart that's been left by your absence, but I'm grateful for the pain; yours was a soul that was rare, and beautiful. I've got enough memories with you to last a lifetime; about 95% of them are hilarious. Unfortunately, I don't have many pictures, but either way, I'm so thankful that I got to be a part of your journey. I miss you so much, Julz! You will never be forgotten, Superwoman! Until I see you again!!! I love you! ❤️

Julia will forever live in my heart. We had a special bond built around our love of music. For years she was in my life, and I am saddened that she is gone. May she rest in peace.
