

Kenneth I. Henery

November 13, 2010

NORFOLK — Services for Kenneth I. Henery, 97, of Norfolk will be at Stonacek Funeral Chapel at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday with burial in Hillcrest Memorial Park Cemetery and the Rev. Dr. James Brewer officiating. Visitation will be 4-7 p.m. Tuesday.

He died Saturday, Nov. 13, 2010, at Faith Regional Health Services.

He was born Feb. 17, 1913, at Glenwood, Iowa, to Frank E. and Hulda (Nelson) Henery. He was baptized and confirmed at the Methodist Church in Neligh. He graduated in 1931 from Neligh High School, Neligh.

He married Marjorie Trube Aug. 14, 1938, at Yankton, S.D. They farmed southeast of Norfolk for 30 years before moving into town. Kenneth also worked for Cameco Fertilizer over 30 years. Kenneth and his wife Marjorie loved to take vacations to the Palasades, Colo., to pick and can peaches to bring home to Nebraska. Kenneth and Marjorie enjoyed dancing at Riverside and King's ballroom. Kenneth liked to sing throughout his work and day. He enjoyed carpentry work.

He was a member of First United Methodist Church in Norfolk.

Survivors include wife Marjorie Henery of Norfolk; children Lawrence Henery and Judy of Norfolk, Joyce and husband Rodney Brand of Foster, Eugene and wife Carolyn Henery of Madison, Leroy and wife Carol Henery of Norfolk; 14 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; five siblings: sisters Stella Dranselka, Opal Holmes and Frances Knaak; brothers Sterling Henery and Earl Henery; one great-grandchild.

Organist will be Betty Frank with congregational hymns "How Great Thou Art," "In the Gardenâ€ and prerecorded song â€œCandle in the Wind.â€\r\nCasketbearers will be Rod Henery, Guy Henery, Don Henery, Billy Myer, Larry Knaak, Bill Avery.

Tribute Wall

“ Kenneth I. Henery

October 05, 2023 at 03:46 AM