“ My friendship with Lacey was shared when she lived in Indianola. I remember playing Girl Talk at sleepovers, they way she loved her dog Tessa, making cinnamon and sugar tortilla roll-ups in the microwave and playing BOZO show before school at Lindsay's house. She even got the butterflies that loved the flowers by your house to sit on her nose, she brought them to show and tell! She would write out her outfits for the week and hang them on the fridge! I'm so sorry for your loss. Seems to me she blessed a lot of people with her friendship. Praying for peace for you all.

“ I am so grateful that I got to have you in my life Lacey. From the moment we were placed in the same dorm suite, I loved laughing with you, and singing to the backstreet boys/Dixie chicks on road trips. My condolences to all the family and friends of this truly precious person. The loss of her weighs heavy because she was so loving, and loved. But the memories will never dull.
